Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 26 Jan 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain and snow dying out. Mainly dry and bright Wednesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain, sleet and snow, across southern and central Scotland gradually die out through the evening and overnight but it remains rather cloudy. Further north some long clear spells and, especially for Shetland, a few snow showers.

Wednesday:
Rather cloudy morning across the south with remaining rain and snow clearing. Otherwise a mainly dry with some good sunny spells in north and a few snow showers for Shetland.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Rain, sleet and snow pushing northeast across southern and central Scotland, some significant snow possible over hills. Precipitation clears south early Friday then mainly dry with sunny or clear spells.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.